April	10	5pm	National Tartan Day- The National Holiday for All Scottish-Americans * http://www.tartanday.org/Tartan Day (April 6) Join us for an entertaining an educational experience with Scottish talent from "across the pond"! (Via Zoom) In 1998, April 6 was officially recognized on a permanent basis when the U.S. Senate passed Senate Resolution 155 recognizing April 6th as National Tartan Day. This was followed by companion bill House Resolution 41 which was passed by the U.S. House of Representatives on March 9, 2005. The date of April 6 commemorates the signing of the Declaration of Arbroath in 1320, which stated Scotland's sovereignty took precedence over English invasive territorial claims, and which was an influence on the American Declaration of Independence and Constitution.	Southern Maryland Celtic Festival http://www.cssm.org/events/festival/ Last Friday in April CANCELLED for 2021

December	10		The Lad and Lassies Yule Libation Event Hosted by MaryAnn Ferguson and Dan Carroll SASMM members gather to sip tea, share a wee dram, and celebrate Scottish culture. Ladies have an ornament exchange. Members only.
	31		Hogmanay Hosted by Jackie Parker and Dawn Spruill Gather to celebrate New Year's Eve in the Scottish Tradition! Come, Experience the tradition of "First Footing" and hear the skirl of bagpipes to ring in the New Year. Ending the evening with a true Scottish sing along of Auld Lang Syne at midnight. "First footing" (that is, the "first foot" in the house after midnight) is not as common as it used to be in Scotland. To ensure good luck for the house, the first foot should be male, dark (believed to be a throwback to the Viking days when blond strangers arriving on your doorstep meant trouble) and should bring symbolic coal, shortbread, salt, black bun and whisky. These days, however, whisky and perhaps shortbread are the only items still prevalent (and available).
